

Parade of "movable sculpture" on Revelle

November 30, 1970

A show of "wearable sculpture" by San Diego artist Karen Kozlow will go on display at 12:00 noon Friday, December 4, at the University of California, San Diego during a parade through the school's Revelle Plaza.

Mostly large-scale and semi-rigid, the sculptures, some 40 pieces in all, will be activated in a series of performances, concerts and parades, both scheduled and unscheduled, throughout the UCSD campus and in various locations around San Diego. When the sculptures are not being worn by the "factivators" they will be on display in a quiescent state at the UCSD Art Gallery through December 24. Gallery hours are 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Tuesday through Sunday, and 8:00 to 10:00 p.m., Wednesday evenings.

Scheduled performances will occur as follows:

Friday December 4: a noon parade through UCSD's Revelle Plaza;

Wednesday, December 9: a game at noon on Revelle Plaza;

Friday, December 11: surprise appearances in San Diego throughout the day and a musical performance by Pauline Oliveros in the UCSD Art Gallery at 8:00 p.m.;

Friday, December 18: a children's party at 3:30 p.m. in front of the UCSD Art Gallery;

Friday, December 25: a Christmas Jubilee at 2:30 p.m. on Revelle Plaza.
