

Richard Friedman leads the "Adventures in Research" lecture series sponsored by the Council of Provosts, PIO and Third College Talk entitled "Who Wrote the Bible?"

January 7, 1981

Richard Friedman, the head of the Judaic Studies Program at the University of California, San Diego, will lead off the winter quarter "Adventures in Research" lecture series with a talk entitled "Who Wrote the Bible?"

Friedman's lecture, the first of four scheduled for the winter, will be given Wednesday, January 14, at noon in Conference Room 111A in the Administrative Complex.

The series, which began in fall, is designed to better acquaint faculty, staff, students and the general public with some of the research currently underway at UC San Diego. The public is invited and admission is free. There will be an opportunity for questions and discussion following each talk.

The "Adventures in Research" schedule for the remainder of the winter quarter:

Wednesday, January 28, Noon, Conference Room 111A "Report From a Chinese Village: is Modernization Really Possible?" Paul Pickowicz, associate professor of history and director of the Chinese Studies Program.

Wednesday, February 11 "Deep Ocean Hot Springs: An Oasis of Life" Noon, Conference Room 111A Bud Smithey, senior research associate, Scripps Institution of Oceanography.

Wednesday, February 25 "Negotiating with the Russians: A personal Noon, Conference Room 111A Experience" Herbert York, director of the Science, Technology and Public Affairs Program and chief negotiator of the Comprehensive Nuclear Test Ban Treaty.

The "Adventures in Research" series is sponsored by the Council of Provosts, the Public Information Office, and Third College.
