HONORS AND AWARDS

Judith Sweet, athletic director at the University of California, San Diego, was named 1992 Administrator of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators during a recent meeting of the NACWAA in Kansas City, Mo.

The NACWAA represents almost 500 women intercollegiate athletic administrators from the nation's colleges, universities, and conference offices.

Sweet gained national recognition last year when she was elected as the first woman president of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the first president of the NCAA from a Division III school. She has been director of athletics at UCSD since 1975.
