UCSD SPONSORS MAJOR LECTURE ON KOREA

"Korea's Leap to Maturity" will be the title of a February 7, 5:00 p.m., keynote address by Korean expert Lawrence Krause, of the graduate school of International Relations and Pacific Studies (IR/PS), at a "Korea in the Pacific Region" symposium at the University of California, San Diego. Also speaking will be Craig Coleman, executive director of the Korea Society of Los Angeles; Dan Pegg, president of the San Diego Economic Development Corporation, and Tun-Jen Cheng, Korean economic development expert with IR/PS. The free event will highlight the development of the nation's first Korea-Pacific Studies Program at UCSD. For reservations call 534-6074.
