

Governmental representatives address UCSD leadership meeting

June 3, 1996

Media Contact: Pat JaCoby, 534-7404

Representatives of the State Assembly, City Council and Board of Supervisors discussed the role of advocacy in government at a meeting May 31 of the University of California, San Diego Volunteer Leadership Council.

Dede Alpert, 78th District Assembly member; Christine Kehoe, San Diego City Council member, and Pam Slater, member of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors, joined in a panel on "Government by the People: Advocacy's Role." Murray Galinson, president of San Diego National Bank and chair of the U.C. San Diego Foundation's Public Affairs Committee, served as moderator.

Twenty-seven UCSD support groups were represented at the half day event, held at University House. The attendees were greeted by Marjorie Caserio, UCSD Chancellor, and Robert C. Dynes, Chancellor-designate.

Group representatives attending included Nicholas Binkley, IR/PS International Advisory Board; Maxine Bloor, Oceanids; Colin Bloor, La Jolla Symphony Board; Lila Butler, Friends of the Library; John Cambon, UC San Diego Foundation; Nancy Chadwick, Friends of Chinese Studies, and Pam Flores-Amundson, School of Medicine Alumni Association.

Also Joy Glenner, School of Medicine Associates; Charles Gorder, Cancer Center Foundation Board; Bea Hadinger, Stephen Birch Aquarium-Museum Volunteer Council; Judi Howell, Warren College Parents Council, and Jerome Katzin, representing both the Judaic Studies Board of Visitors and Friends of the Judaic Studies Program.

Also Sam Kraut, CONNECT; Carolyn Lee, IR/PS Alumni Association; Edward Lopez, Chicano Alumni Association; Richard Loretta, Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies Advisory Board; Rosemary Norling, Retirement Association; Jo Ellen Parsons, Medical Center Auxiliary, and Peggy Preuss, SIO Executive Committee of the Centennial Fund.

Also Al Sally, representing both the Epilepsy Center Associates and the Medical Center Board of Advisors; Carol Schultz, Oceanids; Darlene Shiley, Shiley Eye Center Advisory Council; Barbara Starkey, Friends of the International Center; Andy Wagstaff, Triton Athletic Association, and Caroleen Williams, SIRA Community Board of Directors.

(June 3, 1996)