Letter of Mary Hall - who married Rich^d Jones Laurence of Fairfield Jamaica - and was painted by W^m as 'Anna' at the same 1771 (Engraving by Boydell)

It is with ^{this} pleasure I write to my Dear Papa & hope he excuses my never doing it before. I am almost recovered of the Measels and shall go down stairs tomorrow but my Cough is a little troublesome my Brothers and Sisters are all Brave, my Mama would have wrote but is ^{not} very well. she has been Complaining ever since Friday last my Mama desires me to tell you that my Uncle Dunns are coming in to her every Day and wishes that you would speak to him I am glad to hear Miss Lewis is so well, all her Love with my in Duty to your self & Love to Miss Lewis.

I am my Dear Papa

most Dutifull Daughter

Mary Hall

Dr. Goddard came here & found me so ill he had me put in bed where I am confined with a violent vomiting & purging which is rather boister with the pains of colic & cramps had in my stomach & bowels by draughts of a plaster laid all over my back I cannot write but am generous of telling you Mollie's Letter is indeed correct & I think a model pretty letter & better sense than I thought her capable of doing my dear once more adieu God bless you & your family
