

Media Advisory: UC San Diego Preuss School

May 20, 2008

Pat JaCoby

A distinguished panel of community judges will hear a case presented by Preuss School seniors in a mock trial regarding a Fourth Amendment search and seizure issue.

1 st trial: 9:15 a.m. to 10:37 a.m.; 2 nd trial 10:37 to 12:15 p.m. Wednesday, May 21

Walton Center at the Preuss School Corner of Genesee Ave., Campus Point Dr. and Voigt Dr.

Advanced Placement students in U.S. Government classes will present a criminal case before a panel of distinguished community judges. The students of faculty members Julie Garrie and Oscar Ramos prepare for these trials as a culminating exercise to their unit on Civil Liberties and Civil Rights. The case requires student attorneys to develop the case from pre-trial motion regarding a Fourth Amendment search and seizure issue to the verdict. There is a role for every student, from witness to court reporter.

Julie Garrie, J.D., M.Ed., jgarrie@ucsd.edu Pat JaCoby, 858 534-7404 or pjacoby@ucsd.edu

Media Contacts: Pat JaCoby, 858 534-7404