ARCHIVES OF LABOR AND URBAN AFFAIRS

Walter P. Reuther Library of Labor and Urban Affairs
Wayne State University
Detroit, Michigan 48202

The United Farm Workers has designated the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs as the official depository of its historical files. Personal papers of men and women involved in the movement as well as the files of the Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee, AFL-CIO and related organizations are also held by the Archives. Because of the sensitive and contemporary nature of the United Farm Workers Collection, access is restricted temporarily. However, significant collateral materials are available at the Archives and through published sources as this bibliography indicates. Inquiries about these materials and the UFW Collection should be addressed to: Director, Reuther Library of Labor and Urban Affairs, Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan 48202.
