Farm Division Plan Readied by Teamsters

FRESNO (AP) — The Teamsters Union will form a separate division for farm workers if it wins a representation election at Di Giorgio Corp. vineyards, an official of the labor organization said. The division would help field workers find jobs and also encourage better understanding between workers and employers, he added.

"Having gotten into the water, we are going to go all the way, said Einar Mohn, chairman of the Western Conference of Teamsters. He spoke Monday at a question-and-answer session called by Hanford minister and grape grower—the Rev. Fred Wilkens—to discuss the Aug. 30 elections at two Di Giorgio Corp. farms.

The independent Teamsters and the combined AFL-CIO Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee and the National Farm Workers Assn. are competing for votes.

The election is to determine whether Di Giorgio's employees want to be represented by a union and, if so, which union.

El reporte del otro lado es del periodico, Los Angeles Times. Reporta lo que dijo Sr. Mohn, oficial importante de los Teamsters sobre los campesinos de este estado.

Dice que los Teamsters tendran un programa para trabajadores campesinos si los Teamsters ganan la eleccion en DiGiorgio el 30 de Agosto. Dice que estan alistando un plan para los campesinos.

El Sr. Mohn admitio que nunca se habia interesado por el trabajador campesino cuando dijo que "apenas se estaban metiendo en el agua" en cuanto a la organizacion de los trabajadores campesinos. El Sr. Mohn revelo esta falta de interes en los trabajadores campesinos en un discurso que hizo en Fresno el Martes.
