

16 Seized in Lettuce Protest

Sixteen demonstrators supporting Cesar Chavez's drive to unionize California lettuce pickers were arrested yesterday on charges of blocking a loading platform in the Hunts Point Produce Market in the Bronx. The group, including four women, were among about 100 pickets who started demonstrating at the market shortly after 6 A.M., the police said. Summonses were issued calling for appearances in Bronx Criminal Court next Tuesday on trespass charges.

The New York Times

Published: December 10, 1970

Copyright © The New York Times