

Chavez Son's Trial Set

FRESNO, Calif., March 30 (UPI)—Fernando Chavez, son of the farm labor leader Cesar Chavez, will go on trial July 27 in Federal court here on charges of failure to submit to induction into the armed services. Federal Judge M. D. Crocker set the date yesterday. The 21-year-old Mr. Chavez said that he was morally opposed to war and could not bring himself to kill another human being.
