

New Boycott of Lettuce Announced by Chavez

LOS ANGELES, May 2 (UPI) — Another nationwide buyer boycott of lettuce was announced today by Cesar Chavez, whose United Farm Workers Union has previously sponsored boycotts of lettuce and grapes.

Mr. Chavez, who organized the union to represent workers on fruit and vegetable farms, said the National Labor Relations Board had affirmed the union's right to sponsor boycotts. He said the reason for the boycott was that the lettuce growers would not recognize his union and "the right of their workers to have a union bargaining collectively for them."
