

Chavez Aide Is Arrested

COACHELLA, Calif., June 19 (UPI)—Marshall Ganz, a top aide to the United Farm Workers leader, Cesar Chavez, was arrested today when he attempted to prevent non-U.F.W. workers from packing grapes in boxes bearing the union's label. Harvesting of table grapes continued despite the presence of 850 U.F.W. pickets at vineyards where growers had contracts with the Teamsters' union.
