BAG I.G.P.P.

Laura was a fast talking Valley Girl from L.A.
Isaac was a clumsy Canadian with a bad slice.
Mark's veins were full of Texas gold.
Conrad was the nerd that nobody noticed.

Together they came to Scripps.
This is their story.

520 Description/Summary:

The collection consists of (1) 60 minute video cassette of Peter Shearer's film, "BAG I.G.P.P." made in 1985, produced by Susan Green, screenplay by Peter Shearer and Mark Burnett, directed by Peter Shearer. The film is a Chagrin Production, starring Isaac Dim, Laura Stoked, Conrad Bun Huggin, Mark Burnout, Tim Yoid, Frank Burnin, Tom Boredom, Myll Tendershot, Bob Barker and Count Backula.

Peter Shearer had a premier screening of his movie on Friday, March 1st at 9:00pm at the Martin Johnson House. The movie is a spoof on IGPP. Produced, written and directed by students of IGPP.

The original film was shot in super-8mm which remains in the hands of Peter Shearer. The producer copies the film on to 3/4 inch videocassette and added a musical sound track. Consequently, Peter Shearer considers this videocassette the master copy of the production.
