Richard A. Schwartzlose Papers, 1971-1994

Physical Description: 3 Record Center Cartons; 10 audio cassette tapes

Description: The papers include correspondence, audiorecordings, and manuscripts of papers presented at the Symposium on the Gulf of California, held November 12-16, 1979 in Mexico, which discussed the origin, evolution, waters, marine life and resources of the Gulf of California. The manuscripts of papers presented at the Symposium are in English and Spanish. The collection includes ten audiocassette tapes of symposium papers and discussions. Over seventy American and Mexican scientists participated in the symposium which celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the Autonomia de la Universidad Nacional de Mexico and was held at Estacion Mazatlan of the Centro de Ciencias del Mar y Limnologia, UNAM, Mazatlan, Sinaloa, Mexico. These materials were gathered by Richard Schwartzlose in an unsuccessful effort to edit and publish the symposium papers.
